

CLAIM: I claim

1. An aluminum can crusher which comprises an elongated container with a top cover and a bottom cover and two elongated handles interconnected to two block spacers and an inner block spacer located inside the container and with bolts through them all and nuts and washers used for tightening means.

2. The aluminum can crusher of Claim 1 wherein said handles, bolts, nuts, washers, and block spacers all slip into the container body to form a marketing kit.